

BIBLE
FELLOWSHIP
GROUPS

9:30 AM BIBLE STUDY CLASSES

Digging Deeper: In-depth Bible teaching from Paul Laywell for all ages of couples. Most in this class are guiding college and young adult children through life, but it's open to all ages in Room 227.

Faith & Family: Parents of infant to elementary-age children, this group uses a strong teaching rotation with discussion encouraged. Led by Craig and Gina Daugherty in Room 228.

Pathfinders: This teaching tag team provides solid biblical teaching with a real-world application. This class is primarily made up of Boomers, who love on grandkids. Led by Steve Sibley and Jerry Tyner in Room 221.

11:00 AM BIBLE STUDY CLASSES

Doyle: This is a large class of Boomer adults, loving on growing grandkids. The class atmosphere is casual with a teaching rotation that blends lecture with discussion and class interaction. Led by Mike Doyle and Nolan Phillips in Room 110.

Grace & Glory: An all-women's Bible Fellowship that will love and support women who may be attending church by themselves or whose husbands are serving elsewhere. Led by Cheryl Graves in Room 202.

Homebuilders: Build a strong spiritual foundation for your marriage and home, with couples raising infants to elementary-aged kids. Led by a mix of teachers and mentor couples in Room 112.

Inter-Generational: A large, active class for all ages of married, single, divorced, separated parents, grandparents, and empty nesters. Led by David & Barbara Christa in Room 200.

Key: These couples have children who are students in high school, college, and beyond. A large class with high-level teaching including lectures and small-group discussion. Led by Kevin Key in Fellowship Hall.

King/Strother: Whether you're raising a teenager or mentoring young adult children, this teaching rotation provides the perspective of those who have been there. Led by Daryl King and Gary Strother in Room 227.

Master's Touch: A group of married, single, divorced, and widowed adults, who combine a verse-by-verse analysis of Scripture with meaningful service throughout the year. Led by Bennett and Terri Howell in Room 226.

Micah's Mandate: This class is made up of couples mentoring adult children. Their teaching rotation presents insightful lessons that both challenge and encourage. Led by Mark Brown & Jerry Swindoll in Room 108.

New Beginnings: This class is for newlywed couples who are looking for friendships as they start this new season of life. Led by mentor couples who encourage conversation this class meets in Room 226.

Stamps: Sit under the discipleship of Jerry and Debbie Stamps as you learn both how to study God's Word and apply it in servant leadership. An active class for those raising babies to teenagers in Room 109.